

THE HARROW HERALD

CHAIR ROUND UP

Another month into the season! Squads are settling, and it's great to see so much competition for places happening. We appreciate this may see movement amongst teams, but it's a fantastic position for our small club to be in where we are putting out 6 competitive sides every week.

With both our 1st teams sitting in 4th position, could they be challenging for the league titles in their respective leagues?!

A thank you to Amy and Chandrika, for once again putting on a great quiz night. Always well attended, organised, competitive, quirky and most of all fun. Who knew they had so many accessories!

The Christmas party invite is out, and once again promises to be a great evening. So get yourself signed up quickly!

A slight issue arose this month with John Lyon being out of action for a week, thankfully we were able to honour all our fixtures and training with the use of Merchant Taylors and Harrow School. I appreciate all the members flexibility with the change in venues. We're back as usual at John Lyon from this week.

Have a great month of games, and keep the wins rolling in!

PINK TRAINING

What a fabulously PINK evening we all had this year at both Men's and Women's training, including our Juniors! It was truly heartwarming to see so many of our members make the effort to find something pink from their wardrobe! Thank you!

NOTICE TO MEMBERS

I wanted to take this opportunity to remind all members of our Equity and Discipline policy. The club is committed to everyone having the right to enjoy their sport in an environment free from threat of intimidation, harassment, and abuse.

All club members have a responsibility to oppose discriminatory behaviour and promote equality of opportunity.

The club will deal with any incidence of discriminatory behaviour seriously, according to club disciplinary procedures.

Having just been awarded our "Club Mark" from England Hockey I feel it ever more important that we demonstrate, both on and off the pitch the right environment for both members and guests.

CHARITY CORNER

Julie's Fundraiser for Little Princess Trust

I've been growing my Hair to make a wig for the Little Princess Trust Charity who provide wigs for children losing their hair during cancer treatments.

I plan to cut at least 12 inches as that's the hair length they receive the least of. This is what it takes to make a girls wig.

It's one thing donating the hair, the next thing is to get the wig made which is what the Charity manages.

Let's all get behind Julie and this wonderful cause, you can donate HERE

Ashish Gupta is taking on the London Marathon! He is raising money for Alzheimer's Research UK, a very worthy cause. You can find out about Ashish's journey and donate HERE

Are you taking on a challenge for charity? If so please let us know and our members can get behind you and support your cause.

HUNGER GAMES ANSWERS

Day 1 – Ben (rules are rules... or not)

Ben grabs a hefty branch and starts smashing crates open, sending supplies flying everywhere. Impressive, until he tries to argue with the Gamemakers about "points" and "bonus rounds." There are no rules, Ben. While distracted, Louise wallops him over the head with a pan. Cannon booms.

Day 2 – Nick (too ready, too soon)

Nick sprints at full speed from dawn, roaring "WAR!" at passing birds. He's so wound up that when he sees Don's reflective high-vis vest glinting in the sunlight, he charges straight into a ravine. Ready for war. Not ready for gravity.

Day 3 – Amy (crying shame)

Amy impressively serves a rock at Glenn's head, knocking him out cold for a moment. But when he calls her "weak on the backhand," she bursts into tears mid-battle. Louise seizes the opportunity and pushes her into the lake. Tennis racket floats. Amy does not.

Day 4 – Don (too visible)

Wise, old Don spends his days muttering sage advice and pointing at stars. But his high-vis vest attracts not only the others but also a swarm of Capitol mutt-bats. They swoop down in neon-seeking frenzy. The vest is all they find the next morning.

Day 5 – Dan (mullet madness)

Dan manages to sneak through the forest disguised as... well, a hedge. His mullet camouflage works until Chand insists on giving everyone a hug. One hug too many pulls the mullet askew. Yoofi, amused, punts a rock straight through him like a football.

Day 6 – Fiona (seen-zoned)

Fiona's jokes keep morale high, especially during a tense standoff. But when Glenn whispers "meet me at the river at 6," she chuckles, nods... and never shows up. Glenn, fuming, sets a snare at the river anyway. The next morning, Fiona strolls by humming, and—snap. The arena cannon booms.

Day 7 – Yoofi (legs apart, again)

Still stomping around in goalkeeper kit, Yoofi seems invincible. Arrows, rocks, even fists bounce off. But Glenn, still irritated from Fiona, remembers the flaw: Yoofi can't close his legs. Chand distracts him with friendly banter while Louise nutmegs him with a spear. The crowd cheers.

Day 8 – Chand (too friendly to live)

Chand's charm finally backfires. He invites Louise, Glenn, and the last few survivors to a campfire alliance. They all smile, nod, and then immediately vote him off the island—Hunger Games style, with knives. Hug life is over.

Day 9 – Glenn (checkmate'd)

Glenn orchestrates an incredible ambush against Louise, cornering her in the marshlands. But when the trap doesn't go off exactly on cue, he flies into a rage and stomps on it himself. Boom. The cannon fires.

Day 10 – Louise (the rattling end) – WINNER

Louise has been ice-cold, stone-faced, and fearless. But the prolonged silence gets to her. The arena announces "FINAL 2," and suddenly every shadow looks like a threat. She rattles herself into paranoia, shouting into the woods. A stray Capitol drone, misinterpreting her screams as a command, drops a care package crate on her head.
